

Lab-09

Aim : Draw Sequence and Collaboration Diagrams for your project as well as for the case studies given in lab-5.

1) Login Sequence

Description :

User clicks on the login button after giving the details after that it is validated by the database and the login successfully message will be displayed on the system and the user will be redirected to the home page.

2) Add Course/Material

Description:

In This Teacher click on add Material/Course after that The course/Material will be uploaded to Database After that Course/Material will be displayed in admin panel then the message of add request will be displayed.

3) Verify Course/Material

Description:

In This First all the validation requests will be displayed after that admin click on validate button and then in the database will be updated and the website course/Material page will be displayed. Student can see those courses and materials

4) Test

---

Description:

In This Student clicks on Give test after that Questions will be fetched from the database after submitting the test response will go to the database and then the database will calculate the result and result will be displayed to the student.